

Fortunate Global Dividend Portfolio

As of 2024/11/30

Investment Objective

The primary goal of the Fortunate Global Dividend Portfolio is to offer investors a dependable and steady income stream derived from dividends. This portfolio is strategically diversified, focusing on established, reputable companies known for their consistent dividend payouts. Our emphasis is on selecting firms with a track record of steady dividend growth, indicating financial robustness and a commitment to shareholder rewards.

The portfolio's risk and return objectives may vary as it is actively managed, allowing for asset allocation adjustments across international markets to optimize overall returns amidst changing economic and market conditions. Additionally, the portfolio may encompass participatory interests or other forms of participation in collective investment schemes or similar setups.

In the event that specific collective investment schemes in securities (unit trusts) are mentioned please refer to the relevant fact sheet in order to obtain all the necessary information in regard to that unit trust.

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (CIS) are generally medium to long-term investments. The value of participatory interests may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request from the company/scheme. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs. Forward pricing is used.
